A solo exhibition of 30 paintings which are the best of three years work by Beverley Fry. They convey her individual vision of rural life portrayed in large lively oils, animated charcoal pictures and exotic still life watercolours.

Beverley has been painting and demonstrating for over 25 years. She has recently shown with Art Space Henley, Chris Beetles St.James's, The Mall Galleries London and in Dublin, Paris and Boston.

New commissions include life-size decorated cows for Cow Parade Manchester, Lily painted Sorrento tub for Victoria and Albert Baths, Paintings of Hereford Cattle for The Dugdale Estate and a Holstein herd for Poplars Farm Shropshire.

In 1998 she opened her own Studio Gallery called 'Fry on the Wall' in a charming medieval building on The Marsh near Much Wenlock, Shropshire.

The Knapp Gallery gives Beverley an opportunity to bring her vision of the countryside to the city of London, with paintings that reveal the natural beauty and timelessness of rural life in England.
